

An invitation to an overnight vigil at Haden Hill Hall
Halesowen Road, Cradley Heath on Saturday 25th July 2009 9:00pm – 4:00am

Join Richard Felix and Derwent Paranormal
Investigators

and help them to investigate this fine Tudor Hall that has defied all odds to survive in order to tell us of its ghostly past. Perhaps you might encounter the ghost of the little boy who it is said fell from the window, the monk who is said to have been walled up in tunnels that ran to the Hall, or even the White Lady who roams the stairs and grounds.

Join in the Vigils and use the unique divination devices as we attempt to contact the previous residents.
