City Centre Walk

The now legendary City Centre Walk takes you around Derby City Centre and is recommended for all would be ghosthunters.

Starting at our meeting point, The Old Bell on Sadlergate. We start the walk with an introduction to the night as we head off to the Cornmarket, & Fishmarket areas of the city, where you will learn the infamous ghost story of PC Moss, the only police officer in Derbyshire to be murdered in the line of duty.

The Guildhall Tunnels

Following that is our 1st haunted pub stop, the Tiger Bar before descending into the Guildhall Tunnels. The walk continues, back at ground level, carrying on through the market place & into Jorrocks, our second haunted pub stop & Derbyshire's most haunted pub, home of an actual human skull, found in the early 90's.

The trip continues down St Mary's Gate & back to the Bell, where we round off the walk with a ghosthunters supper, served in the Tudor Room at the Bell

Walks last approximately 3 hours, starting at 19:00 and finishing around 22:00

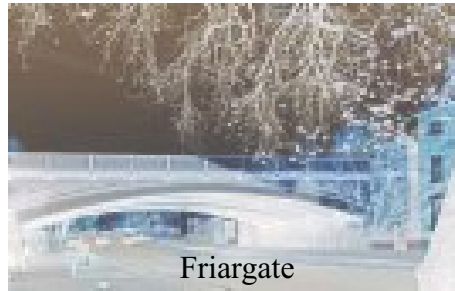

PLEASE ARRIVE FOR 6.50 PM AT THE BELL ON SADLERGATE

Friargate Walk

This walk begins & ends at The Derby Gaol, which has resided at the basement of 50/51 Friargate Since 1756. On your way round you will hear stories of murders, executions and ghostly occurrences.

We start with a brief tour of the Gaol before heading down Agard st, whilst hearing of the harrowing murder of Eliza Morrow in 1862. The walk proceeds down Friargate where we have our first haunted pub stop, Seymours, where you will see a picture of the Victorian Lady who haunts the pub to this day.

We then proceed past St Werburgh's Church up Friargate & into the cellars beneath The Friary hotel, which is haunted by the figure of a ghostly Monk.

Friargate

We continue the walk & to Derby's 3rd & last County Gaol on Vernon Gate before returning to our Gaol for a Condemned Man's Supper. Then unlike so many that have been in the Gaol before, you will be permitted to go home,

Walks last approximately 3 hours, starting at 19:00 And finishing around 22:00

PLEASE ARRIVE FOR 6.50 PM AT THE DERBY GAOL ON AGARD STREET

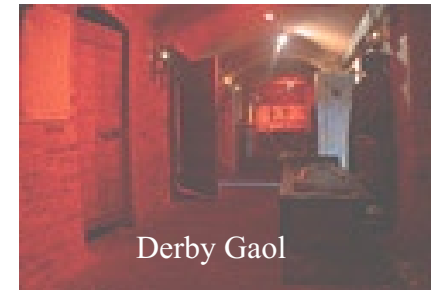

Derby Gaol Night Vigils

An evening of entertainment for those wishing to take a spooky night a bit further.

Starting at 21:00 hrs, our night vigils give you the chance to investigate Derby Gaol, one of the most haunted buildings in Derby, as visited by the Living TV's Most Haunted team.

Included in the price is a main course meal, served in the day room of the Gaol, where we have a bar to settle any nerves you have!

Free roam of the Gaol is allowed, & you are welcome to bring any of your own equipment in the hope of picking up the many strange & paranormal occurrences that happen here. A medium can be hired for a one off cost of £45 for 3 hours.

Derby Gaol

The vigil ends at 04:00 where we send you on your way with a breakfast of croissants, tea and coffee, if you manage to last the night!
A minimum of 15 people is required to secure your own private group, alternatively we hold public nights which are suitable for individuals to book on.
